WHY THIS FAILS

- 1 No description of the service or item. A charge slip proves money moved, not what it was for — so there's no way to tell if the expense is §213(d) eligible.
- 2 It only shows a card number, merchant, and amount. That's proof of payment — one piece of the puzzle, never the whole thing.
- 3 No patient name. Can't confirm the expense belongs to an eligible participant or dependent.

✓ WHAT TO SEND INSTEAD

Send the itemized statement or EOB from City Medical showing the date of service, a description (with codes), the provider, the patient, and the amount. The card slip can ride along as proof of payment, but it can't stand alone.

SAMPLE — synthetic teaching exhibit; fictitious provider, patient & data. Not a real record.
